

2015 Le Corbeau

Discovery Vineyard Syrah

The story of this wine. Named after the French word for Crow, or Raven, this Syrah is certainly as dark as the name implies. Hailing from Discovery Vineyard, perched high above the Columbia River in the heart of the Horse Heaven Hills, these grapes were grown in a very unique terroir. Our approach of old-world style, minimalist winemaking allows for full expression of the fruit, showcasing the elegant and savory side of Syrah.

Winemaker Tasting Note. "This is a beautiful, Old World, savory-styled Syrah, with notes of dusty blackberry, black olive, charcuterie, and sweet floral notes on the nose. Intense and palate-coating flavors, featuring deep, dark berry fruits, woodsmoke, more olive, and coffee-rubbed meat, leading to a long, savory finish." - Chris Peterson

Wine Enthusiast - 93 points & Editors' Choice - Aged in neutral French oak, this wine puts a premium on purity of expression. The aromas are distinctive in intriguing notes of crushed flower, blackberry and sage, along with whiffs of mountain berry and meat. The flavors show depth and intensity, with a swoon-worthy feel and a finish that sails.
